Project Notes

Ok sonicpops, this is the new updated version, so now he can jump on the snow. Its kind of messy, and I don't know what would happen if you went back from the snow area, but its 11:04 at night and I'm to tired to care. If this dosen't work, download it. NOTE - This is a copyrighted Crank_INC project, so only Boopaloom, Sonicpops or 11alex may copy this project. Otherwise, their copy will be marked inappropriate. Also, please do not insult this, because it we all have worked very hard on it.

Welcome to Crank Inc!

Crank INC is a [not for profit] company that produces top quality games. Some are at the top of our gallery, in the projects box. So just tell us what you're good at, and we might just except you! At the moment, we have our programmer, Wodunne, who has kindly made us a Wordpress, made the character jump, and now our official logo. Boopaloo (currently on holiday) is the character and background designer. She was our very first member, so she is quite special. And one of our new members - 11alex. He is currently working as a background scrolling expert (if you look on his Club Penguin project) and Co-character designer. oh, and me....I'm chair-lady, producer, and creator. So that's what Crank_INC is about. But, our motto, is... 'Bring Scratch members into a diffident gallery. Co-operate, and work together'.
